Hearing Set for Small Business Owners to Comment About Excessive Federal Regulatory Enforcement

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – Small business owners, community leaders and representatives of trade associations concerned about excessive enforcement of federal rules can voice their complaints at a U.S. Small Business Administration Regulatory Fairness Board Hearing in Indianapolis on Thursday, March 24 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The hearing will be held at the Indianapolis Marion County Public Library – Glendale Branch, Glendale Mall, 6101 North Keystone Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana.

SBA National Ombudsman Senior Advisor Peter Sorum, members of SBA's Region V Regulatory Fairness Board, and representatives of federal regulatory agencies will hear comments and complaints about regulatory enforcement and compliance.

"One of the biggest concerns small business owners face is unfair enforcement of federal regulations. They also worry about telling their stories because they fear retaliation by federal agencies," Sorum said. "Small business owners want to play by the rules and comply with federal regulations," he added, "and we want to encourage federal regulators to assist business owners with compliance rather than go straight to the penalty stage."

This forum offers small business owners a chance to express their concerns about federal compliance practices in SBA's Indiana District area.

Comments and complaints presented during the hearing will be directed to the appropriate federal regulatory agency. This information will also be shared with federal officials in the Ombudsman's annual report to Congress, and with managers of federal regulatory agencies to assist them with their enforcement actions.

The National Ombudsman's authority to respond to comments on compliance issues is limited to federal regulatory enforcement matters and does not include concerns about obtaining federal contracts, regulations in general, or securing guaranteed loans.

The Indianapolis hearing is open to the public. Those wishing to testify should contact Darlene Ballantyne at (317) 226-7272 extension 212 or Francine Protogere at (317) 226-7272 extension 270, or by email at darlene.ballantyne@sba.gov before the hearing. Should a small business owner or representative be unable to attend, written testimony may be sent in advance of the hearing to be included in the public record.
